

Numerous letters answering our appeal for addresses and information have come in. That the purpose for which the Bulletins were designed -- to keep Old Boys on active service in touch with one another and with the School -- is being achieved, is evident from the words of praise contained in the letters already received. Our thanks to those who have written us. They may be assured that the feelings are reciprocal upon receiving these letters which recall to those of us here at the School equally pleasant memories when they were with us. Haec meminisse iuvabit Ω

We regret to report the death on active service overseas of Sgt./P. E.S. McCuaig ('37-'40). Our sympathy is extended to Dave Lorimer's ('39-'43) family. His brother, Robert, was killed during the Sicilian campaign in August.

Beckett; Stocky Day; Trevor Evans; Ted Sheppard; A. Finley; Hugh MacFarlane; Jack Davis; Jack Christie; Dave Landry; Les Davis; Lionel Walsh; Dick McMaster; Dave Lorimer; Bono Pitfield; Cortland Brown; J.R.Peck; George Huggett. Due to illness, the Bishop of Montreal was unable to be present to distribute the prizes. The place was ably taken by the last year's Head Prefect, Trevor Evans, who after presenting the prizes, gave a very fine and amusing speech. The Chairman, Mr. Jackson Dodds, had said how sorry he was that the Bishop could not be present. Evans, at the opening of his speech, asked his audience how he must have felt. Continuing, he said that for six years he had listened to guest speakers saying that they had never won prizes at school but that he did not believe them. He said that he was now in a position to believe them. Before concluding his speech, he remembered that one duty of a guest speaker was to ask for a half-holiday. This was granted. Good work, Trevor. We'll all be thinking of you when we're enjoying your half-holiday. The School Notes Section of the present Bulletin has been compiled by Mr. R.L.Evans to whom we offer our thanks. Thanks are due, too, to Miss Molony and Miss C. Speid, who has replaced Miss George, for valuable help.

S C H O O L N O T E S

It is mid-October and B.C.S's one hundred and seventh year has really started rolling. 23 boys took Matriculation exams at the end of last year, and of these 2 got their Senior and 17 their Junior Matrics. 13 are now in the Services, 4 have gone to Universities, 3 have returned to England, 3 are working, and 5 came back to School to take their Senior Matric, not to mention 2 who returned to repeat their attempt at the Junior. In the places of those mentioned as having left, 33 new boys entered the Senior School and 15 the Prep, giving us an unusual total of 166. All houses and dormitories are full and even Dorm in the School House -part of the old sick-room- has been reopened. This of course means, plenty of Head boys - but let's take the Prefects first: Bill Price is Senior Prefect, and the Prefects are Aird, Fuller, Steventon, Hallward and Peter Satterthwaite. Head Boys: Jarrett, McBoyle, Struthers, Smith, Taylor (Doug), Taylor (Bobby), Flintoft, Tyler, Graham, Darling, Hooper, Mackay, Phelps, Dobell, Hodgson and Cadenhead.

Bill Price is Football Captain. We won't give you the team line-up until next issue as it is still changing from time to time as coach Kenny Jackson shifts his men around. They lost an exhibition game to Sherbrooke High ten days ago on the Sherbrooke grounds, but returned to win 8-6 in a league game last Saturday as Bill Price booted a field goal in the last play of the game. Their last match was against the Old Boys in the traditional Thanksgiving Day game and the Old Boys battled their way to a 6-5 win. For once the Old Boys were in the pink of condition, for they were nearly all members of last year's team and nearly all ordinary seamen, privates and AC2's.

The Cadet Corps, which won the Stratcona Trophy again last year for the eighth time in succession, is again on the march towards another attempt to win it. The Cadet Major is Hooper, Lieutenant Price, Hallward and Hodgson, OMS Phelps, and Band Sergeant Jarrett. Lieutenant Fisher is still very much on the job and after only three parades the recruits are beginning to look like soldiers.

"Doc" Roebuck, who came to teach Latin in the School after Mr. Love went into the RCNVR, has left us for a post at Dalhousie University and his quiet good humour is missed by everybody - we miss him as a keen coach of second crease football and Bantam hockey and of the track team, we miss the phenomenal sprints he could produce in a soccer game, and the imposing trails of smoke that followed his forced draught pipes as he went along a corridor.

Mr. H.L.Christie also left us during the summer and is taking a course and doing a job at McGill, and living in Montreal.

Of the rest of the Staff, Mr.Moffat is still Housemaster of Chapman House during Mr. Love's absence, and Mr. Patriquin of Williams House. Mr. Young and Mr. Hall are to be seen hurling themselves into the fray before 9 of a morning and trudging home many hours later with the conviction that III and IVB are as dumb as ever. Mr. Sauerbrei is back again as Chaplain, and Mr. Lowndes is once more putting his all into everything from the Lab to the Bugle Band. A new master, Mr. Buchanan, who has just finished a teacher's course at Bishop's, has just arrived, and Professor Langford of Bishop's and George Christisen of the village are doing part-time teaching in the Upper School. Miss Molony, the Secretary Treasurer, still runs the office and keeps a close check on the press for Old Boys News.

In his Thanksgiving Day Report Mr. Pattison emphasized the School's pride in the number of Old Boys who are on Active Service, and referred to the list of 361 names which now hangs in Centre Hall. Mr. Page presented his report for the Prep School, and paid special tribute to the work of Miss Reiner, the Matron, and of Mr. Glauser, a master who left last summer for a post in the University of Manitoba. Mr. Jackson Dodds took the Chair at the Prize-Giving, and the presentations were to have been made by the Right Reverend John Dixon, Bishop of Montreal. Unfortunately, however, he was taken ill and unable to visit the School, so the prizes were given out by O/S Trevor Evans, last year's Head Prefect. He lowered all records by making a two-minute speech and ended by asking for the usual half holiday.

Well, the colours of an Easter Townships autumn, which one always feels are brighter this year than they have ever been, are fading from the trees, and as Mr. Hall has his Old Boys Notes all ready we too must go to press.....
